

SECRET

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 23 December 1965

25X1

1. [REDACTED] In the absence of Mr. Frank Valeo and Miss Peggy DeMichele, I spoke with Miss Dorothy Jones, in the office of Senator Mansfield and raised the question of our talking with Senator Muskie since Senator Mansfield was unable to see us before his departure from Washington. Later in the day, after talking with Mr. Valeo, Miss Jones indicated that Mr. Valeo felt we should not contact any other members of the Mansfield delegation. (See Memo for the Record)

25X1

2. [REDACTED] In response to a call from Dolores Petras of Senator Saltonstall's office, I picked up a document relating to the [REDACTED] Miss Petras explained that [REDACTED] had been in touch with another member of Senator Saltonstall's office and that she did not know any of the details. It was agreed that we would review the material and be in touch with the Senator's executive secretary, John A. Jackson.

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

4. [REDACTED] Talked with Bill Darden who indicated he had been in touch with Senator Russell who had no requirement for any briefings at this time. Mr. Darden also indicated that if at all possible they would prefer to have the Director brief the full Senate Armed Services jointly with the Defense Subcommittee of Appropriations prior to the beginning of the Defense posture briefings. He will advise further on actual timing.

25X1

5. [REDACTED] Talked with Jim Kendall on the staff of Senate Preparedness. He confirmed that only he and Glenn Smith should receive special clearances necessary for Agency briefings.

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

SECRET